

Tariffs & Trade in 2025: Practical Steps for Exporters and Importers

Global trade dynamics are shifting rapidly, driven by the U.S. administration's renewed focus on protectionism under its America First Trade Policy. With escalating tariffs and retaliatory measures from trading partners like the EU, Irish businesses involved in import and export must rethink their strategies.

This guide highlights the key steps exporters and importers can take to navigate the 2025 tariff environment, based on the latest customs planning and compliance strategies from BDO.
